

You ARE INVITED TO A VERY SPECIAL EVENT

Cooks for Books

NEIGHBORHOOD DINNERS

TO BENEFIT PORTLAND PUBLIC LIBRARY

Cooks for Books is a biennial fundraiser for Portland Public Library. The next event will be held on Saturday, March 10, 2012 from 6-9 PM.

Guests will attend one of the 20 neighborhood dinners in Portland hosted by a library supporter and featuring a Maine author as a special guest. Dinners will include at least two courses and wine.

Following the dinners, guests are invited to a dessert & champagne reception in the Lewis Gallery at the Main Library on Monument Square. In addition, guests will have the opportunity to meet the other participating Maine authors and enjoy live jazz music while they mingle. The dinners start at 6 PM and the Reception begins at 9 PM.

The cost for this very special event is $75 per person. All proceeds from the dinners will support Portland Public Library's collections. Seating is limited and tickets sales are on "first come, first served" basis. For more information or to reserve your place on the guest list, please contact David Jacobs, Development & External Relations Manager, at Portland Public Library: 207-871-1700 ext. 759 or jacobs@portland.lib.me.us.
