

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Portland Public Library Hosts Burbank Branch Library Open House

(Portland, ME--October 13, 2006) Portland Public Library will host an Open House and Community Discussion on Saturday, October 21, 2006 from 10:00am-1:00pm at the Burbank Branch Library, located at 377 Stevens Avenue. There will be refreshments provided by Snell Family Farm and live Celtic music. The event is free and open to the public.

Attendees will have the opportunity to talk with Steve Podgajny, Portland Public Library's Executive Director and Brian Damien, the new Head of Branch and Outreach Services for the Library. Program highlights will include a conversation with Mr. Podgajny and Mr. Damien about services at the Burbank Branch Library, information about the planned renovation of the Library's main facility on Monument Square as it relates to and benefits Burbank Branch Library patrons, and a question-and-answer session.

The Portland Public Library is a nonprofit organization whose mission is to serve the Greater Portland Community by providing a diverse collection of books and other resources, with access to information resources worldwide. The Library's services support the educational, informational, and recreational interests of all community members. For more information, please visit the Library's website at www.portlandlibrary.com.

Contact: Heather B. Tiffany, Capital Campaign Associate
Portland Public Library
5 Monument Square
Portland, ME 04101
Phone: (207) 871-1700 ext. 723
E-mail: tiffany@portland.lib.me.us
Website: www.portlandlibrary.com

###

