Teen Summer Reading Log

Here's what I've read this summer!

This summer I will read ...

Pick your favorite or make your own goal! a graphic novel series that is new to me over a video chat call a kind of book I've never read before to a family member \square a true story about something in Maine \square the same book as my best friend a collection of poetry something written by a teenager an old favorite one more time outside in the sunshine an audiobook or ebook from CloudLibrary \square something by a trans or gender non-conforming author for five minutes a day a different book for every letter of the alphabet something in a language I'm learning \square when the weather is too bad to go outside
