

TEEN SUMMER READING

This year, you're in charge. Join our Summer Learning community and focus on your own reading goals this summer.

ALL TOGETHER
— NOW

MORE INFO
ONLINE:

portlandlibrary.com/SR-teen

WHO: Teens ages 12–19 or Grades 6–12

WHEN: June 19 – August 12, 2023

HOW IT WORKS:

1. Sign up online or at any Portland Public Library location.
2. Get your summer reading pack—filled with a free book and other treats—when you sign up in person. If you register online, you can choose your library location online and pick up your pack after registering.
3. Track the books you read with the Teen Summer Reading log in June and July.
4. Return your reading log by August 12 and we will enter you to into the Teen Summer Reading prize raffle. You could win a prize—maybe even a bike!

TEEN SUMMER READING RAFFLE INFO

Return this reading log with your name, email, and/or phone number to enter the Teen Summer Reading raffle.

NAME: _____

EMAIL: _____

PHONE NUMBER: _____

QUESTIONS?

teen@portlib.org

TEEN

TEEN SUMMER READING LOG

Set your own goal for reading this summer

The theme is ALL TOGETHER NOW!

Try reading...

- a book about friendship
- an anthology collection (a book with stories by several authors)
- a book about travelling or moving somewhere new
- the same book as a friend or sibling
- a book featuring teamwork, like a sports book
- a romantic comedy
- a graphic memoir or biography
- a book about someone who is different from you
- a book that makes you laugh
- a book about the future
- a book about the past
- a genre or type of book that you don't normally read

MY GOAL IS: _____

WHAT I'VE READ THIS SUMMER:
